

I would be honored to fill the open spot on Richmond Rescue Board of Directors, if I may express my interest in that position at this late hour. I feel that my educational and work experience as an internal auditor will give me the tools to serve in such a role competently.

Ken Heskett