STRENGTHENING COMMUNITIES FOR THE FUTURE:

Community and Economic Development
Forum

Wednesday, March 27, 2019 | Burke Mountain Resort, East Burke

Presented by the Vermont League of Cities and Towns, the Vermont Regional Development Corporations, and the Vermont Agency of Commerce and Community Development.

Local government and community leaders play vital roles in the creation of thriving local economies that generate local revenue, attract new residents, create jobs, and preserve the unique qualities of a town. This forum will feature training on strategies and tools to accomplish community development goals with limited resources as well as stories from communities that have successfully overcome challenges and achieved their goals.
