16 Sarah & Michael Hudson – Application # 17-053 for a Final Subdivision Review for a 2-lot subdivision
17 (creation of 1 new lot) at Parcel ID # HU2452, located at 2452 Huntington Road, Richmond, located within the 18 Agricultural/Residential Zoning District.
19

20 Steve Diglio, KAS, sworn in by Mr. Bender. Mr. Diglio gave an update on the status of DRB conditions. The 21 driveway agreement given at September 13, 2017 meeting was revised at the request of DRB and resubmitted to 22 Staff. The title discrepancy issue has yet to be resolved because of sick family member and therefore the applicant
23 is looking into a summary judgement to resolve it quicker. Mr. Bender questions what is involved in a summary
24 judgement. Mr. Diglio explains that it only involves the portion of the parcel that under dispute, which has been 25 subdivided previously. DRB would like clear evidence. Mr. Pedersen questioned if summary judgement has 26 been filed in court. Diglio not yet, but lawyers for applicant are pursuing. DRB wondered how plat can be
27 recorded in Land Records. Mr. Diglio responded that title discrepancy would have to be resolved prior to plat
28 being filed, potential purchasers of Lot #1 and 2 cannot move forward without this being resolved. Calvero
29 family owned the whole parcel and subdivided.
30

31 Mr. Pedersen questions about revised Declaration of Easements and Maintenance Obligations. The wording in 32 Section 1- method of locomotion. Would like it to be changed to ingress or egress. Section 3- “In the event...”
33 what is the meaning of this sentence. Diglio flagged for clarity and rewrite. Section 6-typo 5 lines down
34 “attorneys fees” no apostrophe. Mr. Pedersen states that the DRB doesn’t want grantor to be able to terminate.
35 Terminated by members or association. Section 6- grantor should be removed.
36

37 Mr. Dyer questions Section 7- Amendments and Modifications- if DRB approves and then why let them change
38 it later. Mr. Diglio responds that trying to set them up for success in Declaration. Mr. Dyer responds that point
39 taken. Mr. Diglio will give changes to The Hudson’s to revise and resubmit to Staff.
40

42 Questions from audience:
43

44 Judy Rovosky- potential purchaser of Lot 1, has question about of Agreement Declaration. DRB responds that
45 it would be a civil matter if a problem arises between homeowners. DRB trying to make sure that all lot owners 46 are equal.
