The operator tried to duck into the Reap property and turned his lights off but Mat saw this maneuver. While speaking with the 24 year old male probable cause was developed to believe he was operating under the influence of alcohol. He was screened roadside which included the Alco Sensor which registered a BAC of .104%. The evidentiary breath test registered a BAC of .091%. A search of the vehicle also revealed some drug paraphernalia and a small amount of marijuana. The gentleman was issued a citation requiring him to appear in court for a DUI charge.

- October 7, 2017@ 02:32 hours, Sergeant Mat Nadeau was on his way home when he got off the exit ramp a vehicle blew through the flashing red traffic light and almost drove up onto the median correcting. A traffic stop was initiated at this time and upon approach to the vehicle a marijuana pipe was observed sitting on top of the steering column. Sergeant Nadeau requested an additional unit as there was the female operator and two male passengers. A Trooper and Williston P.D. responded. During the traffic stop it was determined that one male passenger had an arrest warrant out for attempting to elude and probation violations. He was taken into custody by the Trooper and taken to the county jail. Probable cause was established by Sgt. Nadeau that the operator was in possession and transporting drugs, however she refused to grant a consent to search so the vehicle was seized and towed to the Williston State Police Barracks until a search warrant could be requested. On October 9, 2017, Sergeant Nadeau was granted a search warrant by the judge. The search that afternoon revealed that the female operator was in possession of 7 grams of crack cocaine (felony), 12 bags of heroin, and 2 grams of marijuana, 7 pills identified as a stimulant, a loaded syringe and $857 in cash. It was also determined that she needed an alcohol interlock device in the car which she did not and she was criminally suspended. Sergeant Nadeau will be meeting her later in the week where she faces numerous charges.
