

Amendment

SECTION XIX

This section applies to employees using social media in their personal, non-official capacity. Personal or non-official use of social media means day-to-day use of social media by employees that is unrelated to their official work duties. Employees' personal or non-official use of social media may occur during work or off-duty hours.

Employees using social media in their personal capacity are expected to be truthful, courteous, and respectful toward supervisors, co-workers, residents, customers, and other persons or entities associated with or doing business with the Town.

When posting content or commenting on town business in their personal capacity, employees must use a disclaimer which establishes that their posted content or comments represent their own opinions and do not represent those of the Town. Employees must not attribute personal statements or opinions to the Town when engaging in the use of social media and if, through their identification or posts, any confusion as to whether their statements might be attributable to the Town arises, they must clarify that their posts are their own and not those of the Town.

Personal use of social media should not be tied to the Town's business and employees must not use their town email account or password in conjunction with a personal social media platform.

Personal use of social media that adversely or negatively affects or impacts the workplace is prohibited. The following is a non-exhaustive list of examples, situations, or activity when personal use of social media may adversely or negatively affect an employee's duties or the workplace:

- Name calling and personal attacks or other such demeaning behavior;
- Friendships, dating or romance between co-workers;
- Cyber-bullying, stalking, or harassment;
- Release of private or confidential data;
- Unlawful activities;
- Misuse of town social media;
- Inappropriate use of the Town's name, logo, or the employee's position or title;
- Using town-owned computer systems or equipment for extensive personal social media use; or
- Violating federal, state, or local law.

Note: SECTION XIX, which will follow the above section in the Personnel Guidelines, will be renumbered to SECTION XX
