

Richmond Police Blotter
September 5 – 23, 2023

September 5

8:00 a.m. An officer responded to North Road to assist with a structure fire.

11:35 a.m. Officers investigated a stalking issue. A trespass notice was ultimately issued on Lord's View Terrace.

September 6

5:18 p.m. Officers investigated the report of suspicious activity on Lower Circle.

5:32 p.m. Parking violations on Dugway Road were investigated.

September 7

11:45 a.m. A computer fraud was reported and investigated.

1:30 p.m. Officers responded to a reported citizen dispute on Lower Circle.

September 8

5:09 p.m. An officer responded to the village green and assisted a citizen with retrieving car keys from a storm drain.

September 9

7:41 a.m. An alarm activation on School Street was investigated.

9:52 a.m. Suspicious activity on E. Main Street was reported and investigated.

September 14

6:04 p.m. A welfare check was conducted on E. Main Street.

September 15

9:55 a.m. A welfare check was conducted on W. Main Street.

September 16

7:00 a.m. Officers were called to Lower Circle for an individual violating a trespass order.

3:12 p.m. A welfare check was conducted on Lower Circle.

September 17

9:53 a.m. A 911 hang up on Thompson Road was investigated.

11:52 a.m. Officers investigated the report of erratic operation on Huntington Road.

12:09 p.m. A fraud was reported and investigated.

2:52 p.m. Found property was located near E. Main Street.

September 19

4:11 p.m. Officers responded to a two-car motor vehicle crash on Governor Peck Highway.

September 21

12:58 p.m. An officer responded to an animal complaint at the Richmond Park and Ride.

September 22

12:51 p.m. A noise complaint on Jericho Road was investigated.

September 23

6:06 p.m. An officer assisted a citizen with an issue that was civil in nature.