

See proposed "T" turnaround and rural road hammerhead turnaround dimensions below.

Richmond public improvement specifications state: "Both legs of any hammerhead shall extend a minimum of 50' from the centerline intersection of those legs." So, a rural road hammerhead would look something like this:

